

Welcome Frank and Hope Darigan!

Apt.# 204

Frank and Hope Darigan are returning to Providence after 32 years in Jamestown and are looking forward to being part of the Laurelmead community. Frank is a Providence native, graduate of Providence College and Suffolk University Law. He has been a judicial officer for the Superior Court of Rhode Island, both active and in retirement, for 42 years. Hope is from New Jersey and is a graduate of Georgetown University School of Nursing. In Rhode Island, she practiced in the psychiatric medical unit at Rhode Island Hospital for two decades and later was a hospice nurse for Hope Hospice. Upon her retirement, Hope continued service at Hospice as a volunteer for many years. Both Hope and Frank have participated in community service with numerous organizations focusing their efforts on social justice.

Hope and Frank have traveled extensively through Latin America and Europe and have formed a special relationship with the people of Belize through volunteer activities. Both enjoy choral singing, community theater, the outdoors, reading, music and spending time with their children and grandchildren.
